Bilkent University Archaeology Day

New Perspectives on the Bronze Age in Anatolia

12 April 2019

Faculty of Economics, Administrative, and Social Sciences - C Block Auditorium

10:00-12:30 Students Symposium
  Magic and Rituals
  Morning Session Organized by the Bilkent Archaeology Club (with the participation of the Archaeology Clubs of Ankara University, Gazi University, Hacettepe University)

14:00-15:30 1st Session
  The Kinet Höyük Project: Phase 2
  Marie-Henriette Gates (Bilkent University)

  Cycles of Collapse and Resilience at Troy during the Bronze Age
  Sinan Ünlüsoy (Yaşar University)

  A New Late Bronze Age Sealing Archive found at Karkemish
  Hasan Peker (Istanbul University)

  Çeşme - Bağlararası: New Contributions to Anatolian - Minoan Relations during the 2nd Millennium BC
  Vasif Şahoğlu (Ankara University)

Coffee Break

16:00-17:15 2nd Session
  What Do Human Remains Tell Us about Early Bronze People in Anatolia? New Results.
  Yılmaz S. Erdal (Hacettepe University)

  Competence Without Comprehension? Some Notes on "Exotic" Alloys in Bronze Age Anatolia
  Thomas Zimmermann (Bilkent University)

  Where are Anatolia’s Stone Anchors? The Uluburun and Cape Gelidonya Paradox
  Gregory Votruba (Oxford University)

  New Perspectives on Anatolia’s Role in the Eastern Mediterranean Network of the Late Bronze Age
  Ekin Kozal (Çanakkale University)

Reception