

What is ORCID?

ORCID is a unique number for individuals to use with their name as they engage in research, scholarship, and innovation activities. Creating an ORCID also provides researchers with a public profile page where they can list their publications, works, and other information such as education, employment etc.

Creating ORCID ID

- Use this link to start: <https://orcid.org/register>
- Enter your name and other personal information.,
- Enter an e-mail address. It can be your institutional or personal e-mail address.
