

PUBLIC ARCHAEOLOGY: DIALOGUES, COMMUNITIES AND SOCIAL CHALLENGES

17-18 October 2024
Bilkent University
Archaeology Department, Room A 130

Programme 17 October

- 09:30-09:45 Opening - Welcome Speeches BIAA, Bilkent, UCL
- 09:45-10:00 Shahina Farid | Historic England
On Tim Schadla-hall
- 10:00-10:30 Reuben Grima | Department of Conservation & Built Heritage,
Faculty for the Built Environment, University of Malta
Notes for a genesis of public archaeology
- 10:30-11:00 Aylin Orbaşlı | Oxford Brookes University, School of Architecture
Archaeological sites, their publics and heritage management
- 11:00-11:30 Tea Break
- 11:30-12:00 Paul Burtenshaw | Senior Director of Monitoring and Evaluation,
World Monuments Fund
Evidence, economics and indicators:
The story we tell about archaeology with data
- 12:00-12:30 Jaime Sanchez Almansa | Institute of Heritage Sciences
(INCIPIT-CSIC)
Archaeology is about us, today. Reflections about the conflicting interests of archaeological heritage management from
#pubarchMED project
- 12:30-13:00 Discussion
- 13:00-14:00 Lunch Break
- 14:00-14:30 Zeynep Boz | Head of Combatting Illicit Trafficking Department,
Ministry of Culture and Tourism of Türkiye
The newest discovery (!): Public archaeology in the fight against illicit trafficking of cultural property
- 14:30-15:00 Sam Hardy | Associate Researcher, Rey Juan Carlos University (URJC);
Analyst, Cultural Resilience Informatics and Analysis (Curia) Lab, Conflict Observatory
StopFake: case studies of disinformation by Russia about conflict antiquities trafficking and other cultural property crime in Ukraine
- 15:00-15:30 Gül Pulhan | BIAA Honorary Research Fellow;
Koç University ANAMED Senior Fellow 2024/25
Between historical appreciation and social gain:
A glance into the antiquities collectors' world in Türkiye
- 15:30-15:45 Tea Break
- 15:45-16:15 Sevil Tırpan Baltalı | Istanbul Technical University, Department of Sociology
Communities, archaeological practice and heritage: A holistic approach
- 16:15-16:45 Pınar Aykaç | Middle East Technical University,
Department of Architecture
From education to engagement: Connecting with communities through heritage interpretation
- 16:45-17:15 Işlay Gürsu | British Institute at Ankara
Bodies, senses and emotions: Engaging with archaeological landscapes
- 17:15-17:30 Discussion

18 October

- 09:30-10:00 Gabe Moshenka | University College London, Institute of Archaeology
Rage! Against the archaeologists
- 10:00-10:30 Güldem Baykal Büyüksaraç | Istanbul University,
Department of Anthropology
Destructive developmentalism, precarious heritage, and social grief
- 10:30-11:00 Lorna Richardson | University of East Anglia, School of Media,
Language and Communication Studies
The BNP and the weaponization of archaeology & heritage
- 11:00-11:15 Tea Break
- 11:15-11:45 Camille Westmont | University of Cambridge, McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research
Public archaeology in the service of civil rights:
Potentials for instrumental archaeology narratives in the United States' civil rights discourse
- 11:45-12:15 Lena Stefanou | The Heritage Management Organization &
Hellenic Open University
Community engagement beyond borders: the experience of training workshops in the Global South
- 12:15-12:45 Francesca Ruzetta | University College London, Institute of Archaeology
Assessing heritage-based psychosocial interventions with displaced people: a Greek case study
- 12:45-13:00 Discussion
- 13:00-14:00 Lunch Break
- 14:00-14:30 Lisa Randisi | University College London
Public archaeology in Mongolia: towards a model for local relevance.
- 14:30-15:00 Aris Anagnostopoulos and Christoph Bachhuber
The Heritage Management Organization and Oxford University
Remote sensing archaeology and the challenges to local communities.
The Digiland research project
- 15:00-15:30 Tom Schofield | Newcastle University, School of Arts and Cultures
Speculative design in plural heritage spaces
- 15:30-16:00 Tea Break
- 16:00-16:30 Ayşegül Yılmaz | Independent Researcher
'We can't even hammer a nail!' - The impacts of top-down archaeological heritage governance on village communities' wellbeing in Türkiye
- 16:30-17:00 Ceren İtler and D. Burcu Erciyas | Middle East Technical University,
Faculty of Architecture
The dialogue between community archaeology and livelihoods in rural context: The case of Komana/Tokat
- 17:00-17:30 Discussion and Closing